

GRNC Update 2-18-10:

SECOND AMENDMENT MARCH: BE THERE!

“I want you to get up right now, sit up, go to your windows, open them and stick your head out and yell, ‘I’M AS MAD AS HELL AND I’M NOT GOING TO TAKE THIS ANYMORE!’” – Howard Beale, “Network”

How about you? Are you mad enough yet?

As Barack Hussein Obama takes American on a fast march toward Socialism, are you going to take it anymore? Beyond the health care debacle, nationalization of industry and the gutting of national security, let’s take a look at what Obama and his minions have tried to foist on you:

- Re-implementing and expanding the “assault weapon” ban in the name (of all things) of guns being supposedly smuggled into Mexico;
- Legislating gun shows out of existence (again);
- Banning guns for millions of people arbitrarily placed on the “terrorist watch list” because their name happens to sound like somebody else’s (this includes children, incidentally); and
- American acquiescence to the despotic United Nations “Conference on the Arms Trade Treaty” which will try to end American gun ownership under the auspices of regulating the “international trade in small arms” as though you are somehow responsible for the actions of tin-pot dictators in Africa.

How about now? Are you mad enough yet?

Sure, we’ve kept our fingers in the dyke for the past year, and Obama, Reid and Pelosi have been smart enough to back away from the gun issue ... for now.

Are you mad enough yet to actually DO SOMETHING?

IT’S TIME TO MAKE A STATEMENT TO THE WORLD

And that statement is being delivered in Washington, DC on April 19, 2010 via the Second Amendment March (www.secondamendmentmarch.org). In case you don’t recognize the date, it is, appropriately enough PATRIOT’S DAY. On that day, between 10:00 AM and 4:00 PM, the Second Amendment March intends to assemble tens, if not hundreds of thousands of people to protest infringements upon our right to keep and bear arms.

Say the organizers of the SAM:

“The mission of the Second Amendment March is to galvanize the courage and resolve of Americans; to petition our elected officials against establishing anti-gun legislation; and to remind America that the Second Amendment is necessary to maintain our right to self defense.

“It is the one right that protects all others.

"We will accomplish our mission by a peaceful march in Washington DC, the United States Capitol, supported by satellite marches to State Capitols and smaller cities all across America.

"The march in D.C. will take place on Monday, April 19, 2010 on the grounds of the Washington Monument."

GRNC IS ORGANIZING BUSES TO THE MARCH

Details are being worked out, but so far we have the following:

At a minimum, a bus capable of transporting 57 passengers will depart Charlotte at 11:00 PM on April 18, 2010, stopping in Raleigh before taking the 6 ½ hour drive to the Washington Monument. It will depart Washington at 5:00 PM on April 19 for the return, again stopping in Raleigh for arriving in Charlotte at approximately 1:00 AM.

WE NEED YOUR COMMITMENT!

Hopefully, a single bus won't be nearly enough. We want to charter at least additional buses dedicated to the Triad area, the Triangle area, and points in eastern and western North Carolina. If you live close enough to use a bus from Charlotte or Raleigh, we are asking you to SIGN UP NOW. Cost for transportation will be $75, round trip.

If you want bus transportation to the event but live too far from Raleigh or Charlotte, please sign up (payment not necessary) and check the block which says "Please notify me if transportation is provided closer to my area."

April 19th – Patriot's Day. Demonstrate your support for the right which underpins all others: The right to keep and bear arms. Where? The Washington Monument between 10:00 AM and 4:00 PM.
